

Panorama
VANCOUVER LIFE

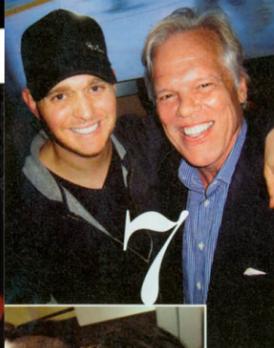

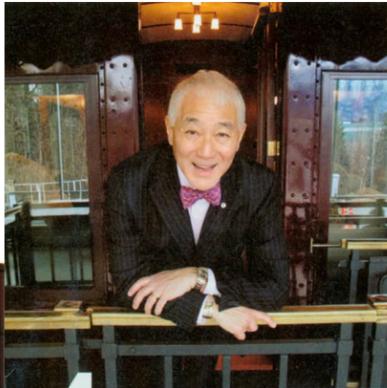

Solid Foundations

Charities large and small benefited from Vancouver's inveterate out-and-abouters By Malcolm Parry

Illustration by Kenneth Fain

1. Dominic and Gloria Cuccione gave the B.C. Children's Hospital Foundation a second $5 million on behalf of a foundation named for their son, who died in 2001 at age 16.
2. Writer Rebecca Russell's sprocketed bracelet hinted at movie-biz links (shared with actress Natassia Malthe) as she checked a trunk big enough for two at a Louis Vuitton party.
3. Annie Au and fashion designer Margarita Angelatos wore the latter's merino modal dresses at a benefit for the Earth Summit 2012 UN conference at the Fortune Sound Club.
4. H.Y. Louie Co. head Brandt Louie graced an 81-year-old CPR car restored by a family foundation and presented to the West Coast Railway Association in Squamish.
5. Alessandra Quaglia, pictured at one of her and husband Jean-François's Provence restaurants, is a director of the four-day International Salsa Festival running this month.
6. Farah Sayami attended the black-tie fundraiser, the Crystal Ball, in support of BC Children's Hospital, with husband Salim, CEO of the Executive Group hotel-development firm.
7. Michael Bublé visited the Aquilini family's Rogers Arena suite, which Steven Funk had acquired at auction to host juvenile cancer patients during a Canucks-Maple Leafs game.
8. BCIT marketing student Sydney Gregoire surprised an opening-night crowd at Roden Gray with a coif she undertook after a lengthy personal appraisal of Rickard's Red beer.
9. Susan Su was crowned Miss Chinese Vancouver at a pageant that Thomas Fung's Fairchild Television taped for future airing in China and other Asian nations.
10. Former British prime minister Margaret Thatcher quaffs beer behind operating partner Paul Stoilen and bartender Lucie Guest at the Donnelly Group's New Oxford pub.

MARCH CHARITY AGENDA

March 10 All About Girlfriends The Minerva Foundation's annual fundraiser in support of B.C. women takes place at the downtown Four Seasons Hotel. Live and silent auctions. theminerhafoundation.com March 24 Dining Out for Life More than 200 restaurants to choose from—each dinner raises funds for people living with HIV/AIDS. Diningoutforlife.com March 24 Twestival Annual Twitter festivals (which take place concurrently in cities around the world) host Twitter-driven gatherings that raise money for local charities. Details of Vancouver's event at Twestival.com